Safeguarding Information

The Child Safeguarding and Protection Team at Mount Argus is running two information sessions next week to ensure that all those working with children or vulnerable adults in our parish understand and accept our Safeguarding Policy. Everyone who ministers in the parish in any way is obliged to participate in such a session. We had a great turnout for the sessions last time and those people don't need to come again, nor do those who attended the full day training session in Harold's Cross last February, but we invite any new ministers and any others who haven't participated in such a session in the past 3 years to participate on either next Tuesday 14th June @ 7.30pm or next Wednesday 15th June @ 11am. We have to stress again that everyone who ministers in the parish in any way is obliged to participate in such a session.

Mount Argus welcomes the Sister's Café

Come join us for cuppa and a chat! A new pop up café, "The Sister's Café" opened its doors on February 25th, 2016 to help develop awareness amongst young women of the role that Irish Sisters play in society. "The Sister's Café" which is being run in conjunction with Vocations Ireland aims to open up conversations between Irish Sisters from all congregations and others who may be interested in learning more about spirituality and the role that Sisters play in modern day Irish communities. Congregations from 8 female religious groups including Medical Missionaries of Mary, Franciscan Missionaries of Divine Motherhood, Dominican Sisters, Salesians, Daughters of Charity, Marie Reparatrice Sisters, St Joseph of Cluny Sisters together with Margaret Cartwright (Director of Vocations Ireland), began this adventure together. On this Sunday 12th June in Mount Argus we have been invited to share the faith story of a Dominican Sister, a Sister from the Daughters of Charity and a member of the Little Sisters of the Assumption. This will be done at the 11am Family Mass followed by a cuppa after Mass in the Upper Room. Please come and join us.
