The Council looked at how the parish can support parents and families, including helping parents and children to prepare for the Sacraments. We also discussed the forthcoming Safeguarding Audit for parishes and the continued implementation of Data Protection procedures. We also looked at the latest "Bus Connects" proposals and their implications for those who come to Mount Argus and for the local community. We also discussed our Parish Assembly, on 25 February, which will be an opportunity for the Council to listen to parishioners as together we respond to Archbishop Martin's request that parishes "find concrete ways of reflecting on the challenge of renewing the faith we carry in our own hearts and renewing the life of the Church" after the visit of Pope Francis.	Divine Mercy Conference takes place on 23 and 24 February in the RDS, Ballsbridge. For more information, see the poster at the back of the church.
