Mount Argus Music Director

Mount Argus is in the process of advertising for a new Music Director to replace Aine Mulvey. We're very keen to get the message out to as wide a community as possible, so if you're aware of suitable people who might be interested please let us know. Or you might approach and encourage anyone to apply that you think might be a good candidate. Aine has kindly agreed to participate on the panel to recruit the new director. It may take a little time to get a replacement, and in the interim period, Mary O'Brien has agreed to step up and fill in any needed gaps as the central contact person. Like Aine, Mary has a long association with music in Mount Argus from a young age and has very strong liturgical, musical and administrative skills. We thank her for her generosity in stepping into the breach. In the meantime the music ministry will continue as normal with the Family Choir reassembling next Sunday 24th January at 10am in the Church for the 11am Family Mass.

Farewell to the Crib

The Christmas Crib will begin to be dismantled after Masses this Sunday which marks the third of the three epiphanies in the Gospel which is the Miracle at Cana; the other two epiphanies being the Visitation of the Magi and the Baptism of the Lord. During each of these epiphanies God's power is revealed in the person of Jesus Christ, whose actions are accompanied by signs which point to our Lord as the Saviour of all. We invite you to make time for a final visit and we offer thanks to those who erected and tended the crib throughout the Advent and Christmas period.

Please pray for those recently deceased:

Dick Downes
John O'Riordan
Thomas Long
Christopher Browne

Rest in Peace
