Today is Easter Sunday

An Easter Reflection from Pope Francis

“Brothers and sisters our hope has a name: the name of Jesus. He entered the tomb of our sin; he descended to those depths where we feel most lost; he wove his way through the tangles of our fears, bore the weight of our burdens and from the dark abyss of death restored us to life and turned our mourning into joy. Let us celebrate Easter with Christ! He is alive! Today, too, he walks in our midst, changes us and sets us free. Thanks to him, evil has been robbed of its power; failure can no longer hold us back from starting anew; and death has become a passage to the stirrings of new life. For with Jesus, the Risen Lord, no night will last forever; and even in the darkest night, in that darkness, the morning star continues to shine.”

Volunteers – Old and New: Easter Sunday is a good day for us to express our thanks for the different kinds of service which go on here at Mount Argus, both those ministries which are seen by all and those which, while equally important, often remain unseen. There are many different ways of getting involved in life at Mount Argus, through ministries of Witness, Welcome, Worship, Word and Welfare. If you would like to be part of one of these ministries, please speak to one of the priests of the parish or give your name and contact information to the receptionist at the Monastery.
